

A Humoon Being

There was such a being from the moon
Who earned fame acting for a cartoon.
    He could only be drawn
    Through the night until dawn
For in daylight he'd fade like the moon.

Sailing Around

There was an old man from New York
Who sailed round the world on a cork.
    When the waves grew too high,
    He just hailed them, 'good bye,'
And sailed safely his cork to New York.

New Fork

One Andrew I met from New York,
He eats all his food with a fork:
    Pork, potatoes and peas,
    Sugar grains, milk, soups, teas,
And much more with his marvellous fork.
